

Who do I talk to?

District and County Councils look after different things in Essex. If you have an issue or question, check out who to contact from the list below.

Maldon District Council:

- Abandoned vehicles
- Air quality
- Allotments
- Antisocial behaviour
- Bins and recycling collections
- Business rates and support
- Building control and dangerous structures
- Car parks
- CCTV (Run by Chelmsford City Council)
- Community events
- Community safety
- Council tax and benefits
- Dog fouling
- Empty homes
- Environmental health
- Fly tipping
- Graffiti
- Homelessness
- Housing
- Litter
- Licenses (including taxis etc)
- Maldon and Burnham cemeteries
- Noise complaints
- Parks (some - check local signage)
- Parking tickets and permits (Run by South Essex Parking Partnership)
- Pest control (includes stray animals)
- Planning applications
- Public toilets
- River moorings (some - check website for details)
- Street nameplates (not road signage)
- Street sweeping
- Voting, elections and committee meetings

Essex County Council:

- Adoptions and fostering
- Adult education
- Blue Badges
- Care for older persons
- Childcare
- Cycling
- Drains
- Education and schools
- Essex Records Office
- Footpaths and bridleways
- Gritting
- Highways (including pavements and local roads)
- Incineration
- Libraries
- Parks (some- check local signage)
- Potholes
- Recycling centres
- Registry office
- Road safety and signage
- Social services
- Streetlights
- Trading standards
- Travellers and unauthorised encampments
- Youth services

Know who to contact?

www.maldon.gov.uk

www.essex.gov.uk