You should have one big development on the outskirts of Burnham to the west, including all the promised advantages which have now disappeared a school, supermarket, garage, country park sports facilities and new access road.. Now the watered down plans just give housing, this always seems to happen, we are promised all these new facilities and then end up with just houses Please ensure no noisy industry is brought into Burnham on the industrial estate as it is and will be close to housing and that all generators and noisy equipment is placed so it faces away from houses and noise goes down towards the river. An estate is planned off Pippins Road. This should not go ahead, the access roads are simply not adequate to deal with any increase in traffic. The incline up Alexandra Road out onto Station Road is too dangerous for cars to turn up, the alternative is pushing traffic out onto the already dangerous Fiveways junction. The proposed access via a tiny turning full of cars at the end
