We do not feel that Maldon or surrounding areas require development. Furthermore, the roads are already not properly maintained, this will only worsen with more people moving to the area. It is a lovely place to live as things stand, but we feel the area will become over-whelmed by the plans and we may move as a result (if the plans go ahead). Bitterly disappointed in the proposals. Concerns regarding schools and health care in particular as we have young children.

Thank you for taking the time to complete this questionnaire. Your comments are important and will be fully considered. Please see Maldon District Council's website for future information about the progress of the LDP.
