You can dress it up all you like and use vocabulary that makes it seem like the council gives a damn about the environment, but the numbers and proportions suggested are a disgrace. Maldon will become another Braintree if this amount of development is allowed to happen. I see economics as the councils main driving force. Also, the amount of affordable housing the council have insisted upon is a joke. Why even bother? Still, I guess the Tory councilors will be getting more of their type of people in the town so their positions are even more assured than at present. A 'highly skilled workforce', hey? We'll just stick a bunch of Poles down Wood Road and the White City to do the donkey work, will we? The people who came up with this plan are from a different planet.
