I have lived happily in Brickhouse Road , Tolleshunt Major for twenty years and have a good relationship with the traveller community who live near my home. We often chat as neighbours do. I was rather alarmed to read in your plan of your intention to extend or intensify existing sites in order to reach your intended allocation of traveller plots. I would like to raise the following concerns: 1) The current traveller community is very settled and I worry that any extension in this area may have a negative effect on this status quo. 2) The existing block of 6 plots is already intensively occupied in terms of the number of vehicles, caravans and other structures. 3) I cannot see how the allocation could be intensified on the plots Homelea, Two Elms or The Loft - are they not privately owned? 4) Expansion would need to use green belt land. 5) Traffic on this narrow road will undoubtedly increase as will the risk of accident when exiting the road at the Witham Road end.
